

Laid Back

Watermelon Slim to bring authentic blues in Tupelo

Sometimes friends of mine will ask me about authentic bluesmen. Of course I tell them about Robert Johnson, Muddy Waters and others. And then they'll ask "Are there any old school bluesmen left?"

One that comes to mind is Watermelon Slim and he's coming to Tupelo. He'll play at the Blue Canoe, Friday, March 1 at 9:30 p.m.

Slim, 69, has 13 albums to his credit, dating back to 1973 when his Merry Airbrakes recording was celebrated as one of the first anti-Vietnam War albums done by a military veteran.

But it wasn't until 29 years later that album No. 2 — Big Shoes To Fill — would gain him a national following.

Since then, Slim has received over 20 Blues Music Award nominations, including wins for "Band of the Year" and "Album of the Year."

He released Church of the Blues in early 2019, which showcases his skills on the guitar and harmonica.

Slim was born William P. Homans III in Boston, Massachusetts but claims Tulsa, Oklahoma as home. He's been linked to several notable blues musicians, including John Lee Hooker, Robert Cray, Champion Jack Dupree, Bonnie Raitt, "Country" Joe McDonald, and Henry Vestine of Canned Heat.

Along the way he's tied himself to the Mississippi Delta, as he plays his dobro guitar lap-style, lefthanded and backwards, with a slide.

One of the key songs on this new album is "Saint Peter's Ledger."

"It was written by a truck driver friend of mine named Ronnie Lereaux Meadors. One day he was in Clarksdale and he hands me this song on paper. I said, 'Hey, I like that, I may have to put that on my next record,' and in a matter of a few months, that's what we did," Slim said. "Ronnie Lereaux Meadors is a harp player from Springfield, Missouri. He spends as little or as much time as necessary out on the road driving 18 wheels. As we truck drivers like to say, you can get along without your bankers and your computer operators and those kind of people but if all the truck drivers decided to sit down — kaboom, everything comes to a screeching halt. Truck driving was the other major career I've had in my life besides playing music."

Watermelon Slim

Slim is an educated bluesman with bachelor's and master's degrees from University of Oregon and Oklahoma State University. So mark your calendar for March 1. For more information, all 662-269-2642.

Amour, a romantic sing-a-long collection that charms

I've been listening to Colin Linden and Luther Dickinson for many years so when I saw they had teamed up to record Amour, I was excited.

Most would know Colin from his work with the ABC television show "Nashville" and Luther from being a part of the North Mississippi Allstars, and playing with the Black Crowes.

Amour is different, not original material but a collection of romantic tunes from nearly every genre which music listeners would be familiar with. Songs like "Crazy Arms," "Honest I Do," and "What Am I Living For."

"Most of these songs I have known my whole life and they reached me in the same way," said Colin about the album's origin. "I mentioned the idea of recording them as a collection to my friend, Luther, who said it was a good idea — and that it would be cool to work on it together. Luther is not only a master musician, but also an artist with a great vision and a soulful, wonderful human being."

"Colin and I are fellow guitar-slinging, peace-loving freedom-fighting romantics who jump at any and every opportunity to play guitars together," Luther added.

If you love old memories and creative guitar picking, then Amour is for you.

UPCOMING CONCERTS

LUKE COMBS
03/08/19
BancorpSouth Arena, Tupelo

COREY SMITH
03/28/19
The Lyric, Oxford

ZAC BROWN BAND
03/29/19
Brandon Amphitheater

SANTANA
04/27/19
BankPlus Amphitheater, Southaven

SONGS LISTENED TO WHILE PUTTING TOGETHER THIS PAGE

- Lonesome Cowboy Bill's Song.....Steve Forbert
- It's a Cowboy Loving NightTanya Tucker
- Cowboy On a Train.....Artie Tobia
- California Cowboy.....Jesse Colin Young
- This One's For the CowSmith Vinson
- God Must be a Cowboy.....Dan Seals
- The Last Cowboy Song.....The Highwaymen
- Save a Horse (Ride a Cowboy).....Big & Rich
- Cowboys & Cut Cigars.....The Burning of Rome
- Topanga CowgirlMudcrutch
- Here Comes CowboysThe Psychedelic Furs
- Ride 'em Cowboy.....Paul Davis
- Black Cowboys.....Bruce Springsteen
- Calling All CowsElvin Bishop
- Read On.....John Cowan
- Cowboy in the Jungle.....Jimmy Buffett
- Cowboy's Song.....Thin Lizzy

Why Add Outdoor Lighting To Your Business?

Increased Visibility

Increased Security

Increased Profits

WHEE! GET $120 FREE

Here's how to get a FREE $120 Rebate.

TUPELO WATER AND LIGHT DEPT.

Call 841-6470 after installation of new electric water heater. Upon verification of installation and proof of purchase the rebate will be paid.

Outdoor lighting is very affordable, and studies show it's effective in reducing crime, vandalism, and accidents due to tripping. Your customers will feel safer and more secure in a well-lit parking lot.

Outdoor lighting adds visibility and an inviting atmosphere to your business - enhancing its appeal to your potential customers.

Don't be left in the dark! Call us at 841-6460 and learn how your business can benefit from outdoor lighting.

TUPELO WATER AND LIGHT DEPT.

Lamp Size	Monthly Charge
400 Watt Spot/ Flood (Luminaire)	$20.00
400 Watt (Luminaire)	$17.27
100 Watt (Luminaire)	$7.08

Additional $2.75 fee if 30-foot wood pole is needed.

NOW

IS THE PERFECT TIME FOR A NEW LOOK

We can help you make your home look better inside and ready for Spring.

And we hope next time you need

PAINT • WALLCOVERING

FLOORING • BLINDS

You'll think of us.

Featured Products

Aura® Exterior • Aura® Bath and Spa
ben® Interior • Regal® Select Exterior
WB Ceiling • Advance
Aura® Interior • ben® Exterior
Natura® • Regal® Select Interior

BUY LOCAL

Benjamin Moore

FLOORS TOO - CLASSIC FINISHES

W. Main Shopping Center, Tupelo • 842-0366